Organized 10 Days certificate course on
“INTRODUCTION TO FISHERIES AND AQUACULTURE”.

Objectives

- To familiarize students with the general ideas in fisheries so that, they can have a good understanding of fisheries.
- The job opportunities and entrepreneurship in fisheries (Government Schemes).
- To study the anatomical and morphological characters of fish.

Detailed Report:

The Department of Zoology conducted 10 Days certificate course on “INTRODUCTION TO FISHERIES AND AQUACULTURE” in the academic year 2022-23. The course commenced from 17th of November to 26th November, 2022. The programme aimed at equipping the Fifth semester BSc. (Zoology) students, with knowledge on Fisheries and Aquaculture. Students were provided with hands on training on various activities which ensured the uninhibited participation of students. The number of participants in the academic year 2022-23 included 50. The highlight of the programme was the thrust given on the enhancement of handling of fish and hands on experience on fish rearing, culturing, aquarium setting, fish larvae rearing and live feed culture. The course modules were designed by the faculty members of the Department of Zoology as well as Fisheries Research & Information Center, Bhutnal, Vijayapur. The economic benefit of Ornamental fish culture was also taught in the session and opportunities on self employment and government schemes were explained. It was enabled through a combination of lecturing sessions as well as through visit of students to field visit to enhance the practical knowledge. The students were evaluated, after each activity, based on their performance of the various tasks given. Their knowledge in the subject such as identification of the species of fresh water, ornamental fishes were tested. Based on the feedback of the students the course was very effective and was a method of generating self employment after their graduation. The course had a duration of 50 hours including both theoretical and practical sessions. After the successful completion of the course the certificates were distributed during the Valedictory function.
