REPORT ON TED TALK

“It is okay to change our goal, it is okay to fail. The fear is not be about the slow growth but of standing still. Popular Kannada actress, writer and singer Miss Ranjani Raghavan shares her life story, about her interests, goals, struggles and success. Ranjani throws light on the three techniques she follows which helps her to keep moving, learning and accomplishing. These techniques are simple and easy to follow. "When is the last the first time?" Ranjani asks this question to the audience and makes them giggle, after which she explains the meaning that it is not just a question but also a measuring tool to upgrade our self. She doesn't want to define herself with any label and calls herself a doer, hence quotes "I am what I do". Ranjani Raghavan, is an Indian film and television actor and writer, predominantly acting in Kannada films. She is well known for her role in the Kannada TV series, Putta Gowri Maduve, and Kannadathi. She authored the book 'KATHE DABBI', a best-seller with more than 15 editions in six months. This talk was given at a TED event using the TED conference format but independently organized by a local community. Learn more at”
